I exhibited a Boxer at my first show in 1963 when I was a youngster. In 1966, competing in Junior Handling, I became the top Senior Boy Handler in BC. While in high school I purchased a Bedlington Terrier from the U.S. and completed his Canadian and American championships as an owner-handler. I had some success as a breeder of Bedlingtons. Only 2 Canadian bred Bedlington Terriers have won an all breed BIS in the US and I am fortunate to be the breeder of both of them. I also owner-handled a BIS winning black Doberman bitch.

While in California my parents purchased a very typey domino Afghan Hound bitch. This was a breed that I had admired for quite some time as I loved their exotic expression. My parents allowed me to lease this bitch and she was bred to a top-producing stud. I kept two blonde bitches from the litter and they both finished their championships easily.

Presently I am a Director of the Canadian Dog Judges Association. I have been judging since 1992, and, besides Canada, I have judged in the US, Mexico and Australia. Dogs have been a passion all of my life.

Our Sweepstake Judge, Dianna Kass
3805 Brown Road, Ferndale, Washington 98248

My love for salukis started many years ago, and there has always been a saluki living with my husband and me over the years. Helen Bretell came to stay at our house for a weekend while attending a dog show in Canada. She brought with her the most beautiful creature, Bel S'mbran JR Juvenoir, Julie, she was so regal and breath taking. I had never remembered seeing one before. I was totally in awe and fell in love with her and the breed. My husband and I had borzoi at the time. We had the great privilege of having Bel S'mbran J R, who was a top winning saluki in Canada with 39 BIS and achieved being the number 2 dog one year, come and live his last year with us. We acquired our first saluki puppy, a grandson to JR, Thunder Mtn Pachanga Tamazar. To my absolute delight we had the chance to acquire Julie's sister Bel S'mbran JR Alexis and Bel S'mbran Mata Aida who was a granddaughter to Julie. A small world when you acquire a sister and granddaughter to the most exquisite saluki you had ever seen. In 2007 we were blessed to have another saluki puppy come to us, Braemoor Thunder Mtn Kool Jazz, his dam was Shahtani Tropical Breeze, Lilly, top winning saluki in the US for 2005 and 2006 and won 3 group placements at the Westminster Kennel Club, the Gardens. We bred Lilly and produced group winning progeny in Canada and the US. Our latest saluki to come to us, Paris, now is almost two, he is my companion dog. Watching salukis run is a total enjoyment for me, they are free spirits and they are regal in their mannerisms, they give you the privilege of sharing your life with them, they own your soul.
