CANADIAN SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB

REGIONAL SPECIALTY

APRIL 16, 2022

The BC members of the CSTC are thrilled to welcome many old and new friends to our specialty. It has been quite a while since we have been able to freely visit and present our dogs. With all the comings and goings these past years, we are eager to bring our Scotties to the public. Many of us have struggled with training our dogs as restrictions did not allow for regular handling classes, which would get our dogs familiarized with the various surroundings, people, dogs and sounds of new show sites.

It is rewarding to see so many dog shows starting up and seeing all the dogs paraded about. With careful observance of the health protocols we can look forward to seeing a better sense of normalcy and enjoy the company of others.

Our Regional Specialty has been honoured by the estate of Sheila Scott, “Stalwart Kennels” who have graciously donated the prizes for this Regional Specialty. Sheila Scott of Alberta was well known for her long devotion to the Scottie breed, producing many champions in Canada and around the world. That type of commitment has helped others to take up the challenge and continue to keep the breed visible whether in the show ring, barn hunt trials, earthdog events or any number of other performance events.

Additional prizes/gifts were donated by Darlene Lenfesty, Killinbrae Kennels, MacBreachin Kennels, and Trotters Scottish Terriers.

Again, thank you to the exhibitors and breeders for supporting the breed and the members in all their pursuits.
