JUDGE

Lesley Hiltz.....Starbuck-Tobay, Brush Prairie, WA

My passion for Beagles began as a teenager in 1967. While living in the country I had previously enjoyed showing horses but a move to suburbia saw my horses sold. To replace this void a family pet was purchased from a local Beagle breeder who suggested that I may want to show him. Although not a great example of the breed he was a terrific showman, winning enough to increase my interest in this sport. This led to my leasing another beagle, further successes in the show ring, and the development of the "bug".

Three years later, on a working holiday in the UK, I had the opportunity to purchase two English Beagles, a dog and a bitch. From Thelma Gray (Rozavel), a male and from Judith Ireland (Annasline) a bitch. What enjoyment it was to show both these beagles all over the UK before returning to Australia with my new companions. Unfortunately the male was sterile so did not contribute to the Australian blood lines but the bitch became the foundation for TORBAY Beagles.

During the next 20 years my successful breeding program produced many All Breed Best in Show winners, Specialty in Show, and Royal Show winners (both tricoloured, and lemon and white). Through a 15 year partnership with Liz Rosbach (Whitcher) and her Manahound Beagles we formed MANABAY beagles. Stock was imported from both the USA and the UK, and incorporated into our bloodlines with great success.

My move to the USA and marriage to my husband David, also a Beagle breeder/exhibitor, continued my love for Beagles, the show circuits, and judging. My judging resume dates back to 1974 when I was granted my Hound license.
